

2010-2011 Winter Season Assessment of Turkey Compare to Seecof 4 Experts Forecasts

2010-2011 Winter Season Mean Temperature Anomaly of Turkey

Generally, mean temperatures were above normal values in most parts of country, but west, north west, mid-north parts of Turkey were around normal values. It was expected probably 40% above normal and 20% around normal for west parts of country and it was not clear for east parts of Turkey by SEECOF-4 experts forecast.

According to the SEECOF-4 experts forecasts, total precipitation was expected, probably 35% below normal most parts of country. It was became below normal.